

Shackleton portfolio company, Nanosight, earns Deloitte Fast 50 rankings

Shackleton portfolio company, Nanosight has been ranked in the UK Technology Fast 50 2011, which recognises the 50 fastest-growing technology companies in the UK. It is also the highest ranked in the Biotech/ Pharmaceutical/Medical Equipment sector and the regional winner for the South West and Wales.

Nanosight has also emerged as a winner in the Technology Fast 500 EMEA 2011 rankings, which recognises the 500 fastest-growing technology companies across Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA).

Nanosight delivers the world's most versatile and proven multi-parameter nanoparticle analysis in a single instrument, visualizing, measuring and characterizing virtually all nanoparticles.

Nanosight was recognised for achieving revenue growth of 809% in the past five years.

To learn more about particle characterization using NanoSight's unique nanoparticle tracking analysis solutions, please visit www.nanosight.com and register to receive the next issue of NanoTrail, the company's electronic newsletter.